In the 1920s, before City founder George Merrick began developing the City Beautiful, this was a thriving guava and avocado grove owned and operated by his family. Every winter, the agricultural roots of the City return to the town center in a three-month celebration of South Florida's agricultural riches, amidst the ambiance and architecture of downtown Coral Gables.

The Coral Gables Farmers Market, now in its 26th season, is designed as a small outdoor European-style green market, with historic Coral Gables City Hall as a backdrop. The market is located at 405 Biltmore Way, in front of Coral Gables City Hall at the intersection of LeJeune Road and Biltmore Way, next to Miracle Mile. South Florida produce available at the 2017 Market includes mangos, bananas, chilies, citrus, corn, cucumbers, eggplants, spices, herbs, honey, lettuce, miniature vegetables, onions, peppers, potatoes, squash, strawberries, tomatoes, and a wide variety of plants and trees to purchase. Bake goods and gourmet specialty foods are also available.

The 26th annual Coral Gables Farmers Markets opens Saturday, January 14, 2017, in front of City Hall in Coral Gables and runs every Saturday through March 25, 2017. Hours of the Market are from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Free gardening workshops, cooking demonstrations from fine Gables' restaurants, and children activities enhance the market experience.

The Farmers Market is organized by the City of Coral Gables. For more information, please contact the Parks & Recreation Division at 305-460-5600, email market@coralgables.com or visit our website at www.gablesrecreation.com
